TECHNICAL INFORMATION

Design: Studio Memo – architects Tapinassi and Manzoni

Furniture collection launched as a tall and short dresser in order to create the compositional, formal volumes of the living room dresser.

Their simple and clean design means that these can be used together with both modern and classic style beds, and that they go well with the bedside tables and small bedroom cabinets from the other collections.

Versatile and personalised thanks to the wide range of colours in the lacquered version

Its wood finishes are extremely expressive, as a result of the sawn-oak effect which best expresses the 'materiality' of the wood.

FINISHES:

- Black sawn-oak veneer; lacquered interior in opaque coffee brown; base and handles with antique brass finish.

- All opaque lacquered in seven different colours: white, sand, taupe, beige, grey, coffee brown (the same colors as WU900) and blue; drawers lacquered in opaque coffee brown inside; handles in metal with antique brass finish.
